Mason Strengthens Lead Over Chipperfield for Congressman

O'HARA IS DEFEATED

Official Count May Be Necessary to Determine Winner in Barr - Brundage Fight

RUSSEL'S PLURALITY 40,000

BULLETIN.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Latest returns tonight indicated the victory of Richard J. Barr of Joliet over Edward J. Brundage of Chicago for the Republican attorney generalship nomination by a small plurality. Barr's vote estimate was heavier than first estimated.

While the latest figures showed Barr still had to overcome Brundage's lead in Cook county, nearly every downstate precinct reporting increased Barr's lead downstate.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara issued a statement tonight saying complete returns would show him nominated. He said his figures showed he had carried 91 counties over Huttman.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Late returns from the Illinois primary tonight indicated no change from the earlier estimates, with the exception of the probable nomination of Joseph O. Kostner of Chicago over Everett Jennings in the Democratic race for congressman-at-large and a decidedly close contest for one state office.

The late returns also strengthened the lead former Congressman William E. Mason has over B. M. Chipperfield of Canton in the Republican fight for the same office. Only the official count it was believed tonight will determine the winner in the fight between Edward J. Brundage of Chicago and Richard J. Barr of Joliet for the Republican nomination for attorney general. Defeat of Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara by Henry W. Huttman of Chicago for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor was assured by latest downstate returns.

Latest figures indicated Governor Edward F. Dunne's plurality for Democratic nomination for governor would be $5,000 and that Frank O. Lowden's plurality for the Republican nomination for the same office would be approximately 100,000.

In the race between Kostner and Jennings, Kostner had a plurality of 24,617 in Cook county. Jennings plurality over Kostner downstate was 7679. Even if Jennings carried out this ratio downstate, Kostner would win the state as a whole by approximately 5,000 votes.

In the race between Mason and Chipperfield, Mason carried Cook county by 36,847 and latest returns indicated Chipperfield's plurality downstate would not exceed 25,000. Chipperfield was 10,324 ahead in 1649 downstate precincts.

Barr and Brundage are fighting it out, precinct by precinct. Brundage carried Cook county by 48,307. Barr has a lead of 34,815 in 2148 precincts downstate. On this ratio, he would carry downstate by 48,155.

Huttman carried Cook county by 5,526 over O'Hara and was leading by 334 votes in 1459 precincts downstate.

Nominees on the state ticket as a result of Wednesday's primary:

Governor—Frank O. Lowden, Republican; Edward F. Dunne, Democrat.

Lieutenant Governor—John G. Oglesby, Republican; Henry W. Huttman, Democrat.

Secretary of State—Louis L. Emerson, Republican; L. G. Stevenson, Democrat.

Auditor—Andrew Russell, Republican; James J. Brady, Democrat.

Treasurer—Len Small, Republican; Arthur W. Charles, Democrat.

Attorney General—E. J. Brundage or Richard J. Barr, Republican; Patrick J. Lacey, Democrat.

Congressmen-at-large—Medill McCormick and William E. Mason, Republicans; William E. Williams and Joseph O. Kostner, Democrats.

Returns from downstate tonight indicated that State Treasurer Andrew Russell's plurality over Homer J. Tice of Greenview for the Republican nomination for state auditor would reach 40,000. Tice carried Cook county by 3,537, but Russell had 27,417 plurality in 1649 downstate precincts.

With 2,424 precincts heard from out of 2,973, returns for Attorney General indicate that Barr (Republican)

BUSINESS MEN OFFER TO AID SETTLE STRIKE

Altho a score of persons were injured, several of them seriously in surface car accidents today, the police reported there was comparatively little violence. Subway and elevated service continued about normal.

FIRE DESTROYS PACIFIC LINER

Several Vessels Help Remove Passengers and Crew of Congress

ALL BELIEVED SAVED

Smoke and Heat Almost Unbearable Before Last Boat Leaves Burning Ship

SCENE WEIRD AS NIGHT FALLS

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Sept. 14.—

Fire tonight completely destroyed the Pacific Coast company's Liner Congress two miles off Coos Bay bar. Several vessels, which rushed to her assistance in response to distress calls helped remove her 253 passengers and crew of about 170. It is believed no lives were lost, altho this will not be established beyond a doubt until all boats which went to the scene have returned here.

When the dredge Michie and the gas schooner Tillamook reached the Congress they found the liner almost completely shrouded in smoke and the passengers fighting frantically to enter the life boats. Despite the stress of the situation, however, Captain N. E. Cousins and his crew managed to maintain control and the work of transferring the people aboard rescue vessels was carried out successfully.

Before the last boat load in which was Captain Cousins left the Congress the smoke and heat were almost unbearable. Flames were shooting out of the ventilators and up the passage ways.

Shortly after the last lifeboat got away, half the vessel was on fire. Soon afterward the flames enveloped her from stern to stem. With the wind and tide, the steamer then began drifting in toward the spit on Coos Bay.

The crew of the life saving station in a power boat reached the Congress shortly after the Michie and the Tillamook arrived and helped remove the passengers and crew to the two latter vessels.

According to word reaching here, the fire was discovered at about three p. m., near the second hold in the stowage cabin. No word was received from the Congress however, regarding the fire until nearly five p. m. The main wireless set of the liner became disabled at about four p. m., and the operator flashed calls for aid by means of an auxiliary set until he was heard by the Coos Bay station.

At that time the steamer was running for Coos Bay. She was compelled to come to a stop two miles off the entrance.

The Great Northern was the only steamer on the outside to respond to the calls for aid. As she was some distance south and could not reach the scene before ten p. m., word was later sent by the Michie that she need not come.

The Congress came to a stop off the Coos Bay bar at 4:30 p. m., and was anchored between two buoys with her stern pointed toward the beach. The Dredge Michie was soon at the scene. Boats were lowered at once and people from the shore saw the people taken across the intervening space to the dredge.

It was daylight and yet the flames were plainly visible breaking from the stern of the craft. Those with glasses saw the forward deck covered with many persons getting away from the fiercest of the flames.

The Tillamook arrived just before the last of the passengers was removed. The scene as night closed is weird. The heavy smoke of the burning vessel obscured her from sight at several points along the beach, but those who went to the lighthouse had an unimpaired view. Several small boats were coming down the bay and they were lost to sight as they entered the smoke which hovered over the burning ship.

At 7:15 p. m., the Michie pulled away giving those on shore the impression that everybody was saved. The steamship A. A. Simpson which reached the Congress too late to assist an dthe Tillamook stood by when the Michie departed.

Several other vessels including the Steamer Yellowstone, also were remaining in the vicinity of the burning liner at a late hour tonight.

It is believed here that all of the passengers and crew of the Congress were removed to the Michie, which turned into Coos Bay immediately after the last boat load of persons had been transferred to her. The cause of the fire on the congress is unde-

WHITMAN GRANTS RESPITE IN THE CASE OF THOMAS BAMBRICK

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Governor Whitman granted a respite today until Oct. 2nd, in the case of Thomas Bambrick, whose execution at Sing Sing prison for the murder of Patrolman George Dapping of New York in 1915 had been fixed for tomorrow. The ordeal of watching tests of the current after he had been detailed to aid in adjusting the wires and connections of the electric chair led to a statement by Frank Mehan, a Sing Sing convict, it was learned tonight, on which was based the respite to Bambrick. Mehan said, according to the authorities he witnessed the shooting of Dapping and that the murderer was not Bambrick. Mehan broke down while at work about the electric chair, it was said, and begged to be taken at once to Deputy Warden Miller to whom he related his story.

Mrs. Margaret Reig of St. Louis, Mo., who was very ill was transferred very carefully from the Congress to the Michie. All the passengers and most of the crew went ashore at Northend where they are being cared for.

The Congress which was built in 1913 at Camden, N. J., at a cost of $1,250,000 is a steel steamer of 7,985 tons, 424 feet long and 55 feet broad. She is the finest vessel on the run between San Francisco and Seattle.

RAID INDUSTRIAL WORKERS' MEETING

Sheriff, Deputies and State Troopers Arrest Three Hundred and Eighteen

PUT ALL IN COUNTY JAIL

Escort Prisoners in Squads from Hall and Lead Them In to Vehicles of Various Kinds

TRYING TO TIE UP MINES

SORANTON, Pa., Sept. 14.—A meeting of the Industrial Workers of the World in Old Forge at noon today was raided by Sheriff Ben S. Phillips with the aid of a dozen deputies and twenty state troopers headed by Lieutenant Price and Lyman D. Hall, three hundred and eighteen in all were arrested loaded into vehicles of various kinds and taken to the Lackawanna county jail charged with riot.

The authorities had issued orders that the meeting was not to be held. For two weeks past the Industrial Workers of the World have been trying to tie up the Jermyn company. The employees are about evenly divided between the I. W. W. and the United Mine Workers. The latter would not join in the strike and the I. W. W., pickets by assaults by various forms of intimidation, it is alleged have sought to keep them away from the mines. There have been daily disturbances and finally the saloons were ordered closed and meetings of the I. W. W. forbidden.

The prisoners were escorted in squads from the hall and loaded into automobiles, ice wagons, coal wagons, motor trucks, drays and various other vehicles, commanded by a sheriff's men as fast as they have in sight. Then the march to the county jail in this city was taken up in two divisions, the galloping troopers guarding the faster moving motor division and the deputies walking alongside guarding the horse drawn vehicles.

Joe Nozzi and other alleged leaders of the I. W. W. were among those arrested. The prisoners were placed five in a cell. Not a weapon was found on any of them. Sheriff Phillips will decide tomorrow what to do with them. Nearly all the prisoners are of foreign birth. The Italian consul, Fortunato Tiscar, applied to court for a habeas corpus writ for their release and court decided to conduct a hearing on the motion next Saturday.

ARIZONA MURDERER TO HANG

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 14.—After battling in the courts for three years in a futile effort to escape the noose, Robert Talley, convicted of murder, is to be executed in the state prison tomorrow unless granted a further respite by action of the state board of pardons.

Talley's crime was the murder of Jesse Daner in Miami in 1913. The victim of the tragedy was the father of a girl with whom Talley was infatuated. The attentions of Talley to his daughter were discouraged by Daner and he sent the girl to El Paso in order to remove her from Talley's influence.

The night of the shooting, Talley learned that his former sweetheart had been married the day before in El Paso. Returning to his home Talley procured his gun and started out to find Daner. Meeting his victim in the main street of the town Talley opened fire and mortally wounded Daner.

NOTIFY MARSHALL OF RE-NOMINATION

CEREMONIES THIRD OF KIND IN INDIANAPOLIS IN LAST FEW WEEKS

Many Prominent Democrats from all over the United States Attend—All the Speakers Express Confidence of a Democratic Victory.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 14.—Vice president Thomas R. Marshall was notified tonight of his re-nomination for vice president on the Democratic ticket and formally accepted the honor. The ceremonies were the third of the kind to be held in Indianapolis within the last few weeks. The other two notifications were for J. Frank Hanly, the Prohibition presidential candidate and Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican vice-presidential nominee.

Many prominent Democrats, including National Chairman Vance McCormick, from all over the United States were present at the notification. Informal political conferences were held by the leaders and plans for the campaign were discussed thoroughly.

Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, delivered the speech of notification after having been introduced by J. A. M. Adair, candidate for governor of Indiana, chairman of the ceremonies. All the speakers praised the Democratic administration, replied to the Republican attacks which had been made on it and expressed confidence of a Democratic victory.

A big parade preceded the ceremonies. Thomas R. Marshall formally accepted the Democratic renomination for the vice-presidency here tonight, not for additional honor, he said, "but that I may assist in the reelection of Woodrow Wilson who has not walked where the path has led, but who has walked where there was no path and who has left a trail."

In a speech of acceptance phrased in characteristic vein, the Vice president sketched briefly the legislative achievements of the administration, in which he said he had been "an onlooker," and eulogized the President as "the man who has brooded over the Republic in storm-tossed times and by mere words spoke peace on the troubled seas of international politics." A changed administration, he declared, would not dare repeat a single one of the important measures put on the statute books since March 4, 1913.

Wanting an issue, he continued, the Republicans had turned to foreign affairs, coining such phrases as "Firm Americanism" which they could not define.

"The American people this year have made their own issue," said Mr. Marshall. "Those that the parties present may be only side issues. The real issue of this campaign is that thought which goes with the father to his work or business, which engrosses every mother, wife or sweetheart, which sits down with them at every fireside and goes to bed with them in every home—and that thought is 'Can the President of the United States continue to so patiently manage our international affairs as to maintain honorable peace?'"

"The 'one bright, peaceful spot' under the sun this day is America and it is so because the President pleads guile to the charge of using words rather than shot and shell and shrapnel. If America is to lead the world toward that new seemingly far distant goal where brute force shall be bound by wisdom and science in fetters which it can never again break, then these are the hours for mere words."

COMBLES VILLAGE ON VERGE OF CAPTURE

German Position is Becoming By British on West and French on East

FRENCH CAPTURE FARM

Berlin and Sofia State Teutons Continue Advance on Dobrudja Sector of Roumania

REPULSE ROUMANIAN ATTACK

Beset by the British on the west and the French on the east, the village of Combles, in the Somme region of France apparently is on the verge of capture by the entente forces.

With the British firmly established in the Luze wood, less than a mile from the western outskirts of the village, the French a mile to the east of it, have driven their wedge in farther and captured Le Priez farm, thru which runs the road to Rancourt. The farm, which had been held by the Germans as a point of support against French encroachment upon Combles was taken by assault.

Along the Peronne-Bethune road to the north and south of Bouchavesne the Germans, according to Paris have vainly attacked the newly won French positions in the hope of regaining their transport line to the north, but all their efforts have been without success, and the French have maintained all their gains.

Except for reciprocal bombardments and a slight advance by the French by means of a "bombing attack" near Belloy-en-Santerre, south of the Somme, the situation elsewhere on the entire front in France and Belgium remains unchanged. The Teutonic allies are continuing their advance on the Dobrudja sector of Roumania, according to Berlin and Sofia.

Across the mountains in Transylvania the Roumanians have attacked west and east of Hermannstadt, but were repulsed says the Vienna war office.

In the Carpathians the Russians attacked vigorously the forces of the central powers at Smotrec, Ludova Kapul, storming positions after heavy preparatory bombardment. Their efforts to drive forward, however, were stopped with sanguinary losses, according to Vienna.

On the Macedonian front considerable heavy fighting has taken place but with the results beclouded owing to the contradictory reports by the different war chancelleries. The Serbs in the Lake Ostrovo region are declared by Paris to have made appreciable progress against the Bulgarians, while both Berlin and Sofia report bombardments in this vicinity but mention gains for neither side. On the front where the Italians are facing the Bulgarians, Sofia asserts the Italians have been put to flight. In the Dolran district several Germans were taken prisoner and a number of machine guns captured.

Altho it had been previously stated that the Greek forts at Kavala were evacuated by the Bulgarians, Berlin says they are all in the hands of the Bulgars and that the Greek troops which were at Kavala have been sent to Germany where they will remain until the end of the war in "the status of neutrals."

In the Austro-Italian theater the usual bombardments and isolated infantry attacks continue.

Late Athens dispatches declare that M. Dimitracopolis has declined to form a cabinet to succeed that of M. Zalmis.

Hughes Should Follow Precedent.

Many Morgan county Republicans are hoping that Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency can be routed thru this city and make a stop for at least a few minutes during his visit to the state for the coming week. Mr. Hughes is to speak in Chicago, Peoria and Springfield, according to announcements already made, and will go from southern Illinois to St. Louis. If anything is done about getting Jacksonville on the itinerary steps must be taken immediately. Mr. Hughes will follow precedent if he visits Jacksonville, for various presidents and vice presidents have made campaign addresses here. The list includes Harrison, Bryan, Roosevelt, Wilson and Fairbanks.

Meeting Defeat Gracefully

It indeed augurs well for the success of the Republican ticket in November that Senator Morton D. Hull and Colonel Frank Smith, defeated candidates for the governorship, have taken the result with such fine spirit. They and those intimately associated with them in the conduct of their campaigns have indicated their willingness to accept the result as expressing the unbiased wishes of the majority of the Republican voters. They as Republicans believe in majority rule and are ready to take off their coats and go to work for "the whole ticket" and thus help redeem the state from Democracy.

As Burton Sees It.

Senator Burton of Ohio, who has been campaigning in Maine, has this to say about the result: "Every recourse was employed by the Democrats to carry the state. The popularity of Mr. Wilson has been during the last few weeks at its height. In the face of these conditions the result is extremely significant. Such a pronounced victory, so unexpected by those who took a conservative view of the Maine situation, must have a marked influence on the November election. The confidence of the Republicans in the election of Hughes has been greatly strengthened. Unless some wholly unforeseen adverse influence develops elsewhere, it is evident that the speeches of Mr. Hughes and Col. Roosevelt were productive of far-reaching results."

Expert Auditors Will Testify

An unusual situation is presented in Springfield where an audit of the city's books is in progress, the work being done by auditors placed there by the Springfield Gas & Electric company. The purpose of the company is to secure the records on the cost of making electricity by the municipal plant and they expect to support their contention that the

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

HORSE AND AUTO

A year ago I drove a steed, and said, "A horse is better far (although changing in his speed) than any chugging motor car. A horse is mankind's faithful friend, a thing for spirit, heart and sense, and serves you well till in the end, he kicks you through a barbed wire fence." My wife grew weary of our plug, that often needed whip and goad; "I want a car that goes chug-chug," she said, "and burns the dusty road." The man who wants a peaceful life, with minimum of jolt and jar, will always strive to please his wife—and so I bought a motor car. The motor car I now endorse, and often wonder how a man can have the nerve to drive a horse, the most distinctive also ran. I meet old Dobbin on the road, and weep with pity for his woes; how earnestly he hates his load, and, Jiminy, how slow he goes! A million flies are on his legs, his busy tail brings no relief; in every movement Dobbin begs for chloroform, to end his grief. The flies can't bite my motor car, so I blithely scorch along; no spavins can my pleasure mar, I fill the throbbing air with song.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

September 15, 1787—The French inhabitants of Illinois, thru an agent, Tardiveau, petitioned Congress for a free grant of 500 acres for every male citizen among them, in consideration of the losses and oppression suffered by them at the hands of the Virginia soldiers.

cost is below the price at which the city is selling current. On the other hand, the city commission has an accountant going thru the books for data which will be used as evidence in the coming litigation. If these expert accountants give testimony, oral or written, along the same general lines that medical experts follow, their testimony will be absolutely opposed and the jury which hears the evidence will be as well qualified to give a finding before the evidence is taken as afterwards.

A Car Shortage Problem

The state utilities commission has a difficult problem to handle when representatives of railroads and shippers will meet them in Springfield September 20 to seek to devise a plan for the equitable distribution of cars, especially as related to the grain business. For months the commission has foreseen a shortage and Commissioner Funk issued an appeal to both the railroads and the shippers asking them to release cars as rapidly as possible. The actual shortage has been more severe even than that anticipated and many grain dealers have suffered severe loss because of their inability to secure cars.

The feeling prevails that some favoritism has been shown and the shippers are hoping that the utilities commission will be able to arrive at some plan which will guarantee fair apportionment of cars so that all dealers will have a fair share. The shortage of coal cars not quite as acute as that of grain cars, but mines are all without complete equipment and are compelled to run from one-half to two-thirds time. If real winter holds off for two months yet this situation will probably adjust itself, but with an early winter there is almost a certainty of a worse shortage, a corresponding increase in prices and the public will be the losers.

Much in a Name.

That there is much in a name was indicated by the vote John A. Logan, a candidate for congress on the Republican ticket, received not only in Morgan county but in other counties of the state. John A. Logan is probably not known personally to a half dozen people in this county yet in the election he received 762 votes. He is said to be in no way related to the late General John A. Logan, but undoubtedly the similarity of names was of the greatest benefit to him on election day.

There is much in a name when it comes to a ballot contest and there is also a good deal in position on the ballot when a large number of candidates are running for the same office. A study of the returns indicates that a great many voters, making a choice among candidates, none of whom they know, naturally vote for either the first name under the heading or the last name. In making their selection under this head it is merely a matter of chance and it is safe to say that frequently without reading the names they mark the square opposite the first name.

"Going It Alone"

The success of Andrew Russell as candidate for state auditor is notable and has attracted a vast amount of comment from the press. It was an astute political writer of the Chicago News that a week or more before election referred to Mr. Russell as the only candidate who was strong enough to "go it alone." The election returns have shown how correct that statement was, and it certainly is a splendid victory for a man to keep free from political slates and win the nomination he has been seeking by a majority of from 35,000 to 40,000.

"Going it alone" is all right if one has the strength and courage to do so, and if the result is the one desired. But "going it alone" is hardly the correct expression, for in a field of ten candidates, to secure a remarkable majority means that a candidate has had a splendid personal organization and the support of thousands and thousands of voters in all parts of the state. Mr. Russell went alone and independently but he organized so wisely, had such an excellent record as a public official to point to, that the merited honor is his today.

Sangamon in the Saddle

It is the same old story—Morgan county men, who as candidates for members of the general assembly were promised hearty and liberal support by voters in Sangamon county, and look at the returns and find that history repeated itself Wednesday. Sangamon county voters gave the preference to Sangamon county candidates and as a result two Democrats and two Republicans, all residents of Sangamon county, are the candidates on the ticket. And it is a certain fact that Morgan county will have no resident representative.

This statement is not a criticism of the character or ability of the candidates nominated, but a commentary on the fact that Morgan county has little hope of securing a representative until the time shall come that one local candidate is chosen and all the votes cast for that candidate. The election returns two years ago showed that Sangamon county cast just about three times as many votes as Morgan county. This county has not had a resident member of the legislature for the past four biennial sessions and certainly the county is entitled to a turn.

The Republican County Ticket As a result of the primary election Wednesday the Republican party has candidates who make up a "good ticket." It is a Republican year, and with all indications pointing to a national victory and a practical certainty that Colonel Lowden as governor and his associates on the state ticket will be elected by old time majorities far in excess of 100,000. These conditions make for the success of the county ticket, and active work for the Republican candidates will bring their election in November.

Fred B. Henderson, who has been named for circuit clerk, has been for many years a resident of the Arcadia neighborhood and belongs to one of the best known families in the northern part of the county. He is a man with business experience, familiar somewhat with county affairs thru his position as public administrator, and furthermore is personally of high character.

Carl E. Robinson, chosen candidate for state's attorney by a majority so decisive that he secured more votes than both of his competitors, has made a splendid record since his admission to the bar. Mr. Robinson graduated from Illinois college, then taught for a time, studied law and entered upon the practice to his profession with mature judgment and experience which come with years. He is a man of firm convictions and strong principles and has arrived at his present position by dint of the most earnest effort.

Charles A. Rose is the nominee for coroner and his vote showed his popularity in both the county and city precincts. Mr. Rose has been a resident of Jacksonville for many years and has the entire confidence of those who know him. He has never before sought a county office but has definite ideals of service and can well be entrusted with the duties of coroner.

Charles S. Magill, candidate for county commissioner, who was chosen without opposition, is a successful farmer, well acquainted with the needs of the county. For years he has served as road commissioner and has had experience along other lines which have brought him into touch with public affairs.

Earl M. Henderson, candidate for county surveyor, was also chosen without opposition and is well qualified for that post.

Big Sums for Agricultural Work

Something worth while should be done for the agricultural interests of the country if money counts for anything. The agricultural appropriation act for the year ending June 30, 1917 carries $24,948,852 for the work. Congress is no doubt willing to devote this vast sum to the department because of the knowledge that agriculture is the basis for the country's wealth.

The figures for this year give an increase of $1,977,070 over the appropriation for the fiscal year 1916. This total, however, does not include $600,000 for printing and binding, $3,000,000 for carrying out the provisions of the meat-inspection act, $1,580,000 for extension work in agricultural and home economics under the co-operative agricultural extension act, $5,000,000 for the co-operative construction of rural post roads, and $1,000,000 for roads and trails in the national forests under the Federal-aid road act. If these additional items are included, it will be seen that the sum of $36,128,852, an increase of $8,124,770 will be available to the department for all purposes. This figure, however, does not include the $70,000,000 made available under the Federal-road act, for rural post roads during the next four years, the $9,000,000 for roads and trails in the national forests available under the same act during the next nine years, or the $2,000,000 appropriated for continuing the purchase of eastern forest lands under the terms of the Weeks law during the fiscal year 1918. It does not show sums which will be available in successive years for agricultural extension work under the co-operative agricultural extension act and the States themselves must contribute at least $4,100,000.

Among the important appropriations included in the act are the following:

Appropriation of $65,000 for market news service for live stock, meats, and animal products.

Cooperative employment of marketing agents in the various states in marketing work.

Appropriation of $126,600 for market news service for fruits and vegetables.

Appropriation of $2,000,000 for continuing the purchase of forest lands under the Weeks law, in the Southern Appalachian region and the White Mountains.

Appropriation of $175,000 for experiments and demonstrations of the best methods of obtaining potash from kelp.

Appropriation of $50,000 for conducting experiments in producing dyes from material grown or produced in the United States.

Amendment of the seed importation law which permits the exclusion of seed which contains an excess of dead seed, dirt, or other adulterants.

Appropriation of $10,000 for the development of a sugar-beet seed industry.

Increased appropriations to extend the weather service in the vicinity of the Panama canal and in the Caribbean Sea and Gulf regions.

Increased appropriation for cooperative demonstration work outside of the cotton belt.

Authority given to the Secretary of Agriculture to permit prospecting in and development and utilization of mineral resources of the eastern national forests.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS COMPLETED AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Freshman Class Will Number More Than a Hundred—Motion Picture Machine Installed

Illinois Woman's college will have this year an entering class of more than a hundred and when school is formally opened next Wednesday, September 20, at 9 o'clock, the college will begin a year of more than usual promise. Practically all of the available rooms have been reserved and there will be more than two hundred students in the college building. Many of the faculty members spent the summer months in special study and some have already arrived to take up their winter's work.

Miss Laura McLaughlin head of the department of chemistry, has received her master of science degree from the University of Chicago. The degree was granted at the 100th convocation of the university this month and the topic of Miss McLaughlin's thesis was "The Preparation of Some Phenolic Esters and Their Decomposition by Ammonia."

Returning students will notice a great number of improvements in the college plant, in addition to the library building which has just been completed, and the new gymnasium, work on which is progressing in a steady manner. New carpets have been placed throughout the building and metal ceilings now surmount each of the hallways. Sixteen hundred yards of burlap were used in covering the walls of the several corridors. On the first floor all the walls have been covered and the woodwork in each of the rooms painted. In the physics laboratory tables with especially prepared granite surfaces to overcome vibration have been installed and three new high power microscopes have been added to the laboratory equipment.

Dr. Harker is in receipt of a bronze tablet which will be placed over the door of the new library. On it is the inscription, "This tablet is erected in appreciation of Julius E. Strawn and David Strawn, for their generous gifts to the library and to the endowment of the college." The new library will have room for 10,000 volumes and when at some future time a glass flooring is placed above the stacks, forming a second story, the capacity will be 20,000 volumes.

An improvement which will be of interest to all departments is a motion picture machine just installed in the social room and enclosed in steel walls, painted to harmonize with the general room-coloring. From time to time the U. S. government issues lists of educational films covering all subjects and illustrating all lines of industry. These may be had at the cost of transportation merely and films may be obtained for delineation of historic, scientific and artistic themes, as well as current events.

Young women should arrange now for instruction at the Woman's College. A faculty of 39 trained teachers make possible the best instruction.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION GATHERING COMPLETES BUSINESS THURSDAY

Friday Morning Session is Dispensed With and Delegates Return—Rev. Mr. Todd Here.

"The Altar, the Tent and the Well" was the theme of an excellent sermon delivered Thursday afternoon before the Morgan and Scott Baptist association by the Rev. A. A. Todd, the first address given by the new pastor of First Baptist church since his arrival in the city. Mr. Todd will remain in Jacksonville over Sunday. He will seek a location and expects within a short time to remove here with his wife and daughter, Miss Margaret. Tuesday evening members of Lafayette Park Baptist church, of which Rev. Mr. Todd was pastor, gave a reception in honor of himself and wife, which was attended by friends of the pastor in large number.

The association will hold its next annual meeting in Waverly, it was voted Thursday morning. The convention closed with the session Thursday night, as delegates found it possible to bring business to a close in less than the time allotted and thus to dispense with the Friday morning program.

The Thursday forenoon program was carried out substantially as announced, the Pres. George M. Potter of Shurtleff college was not present. The address by Rev. Mr. Todd in the afternoon was followed by a woman's hour at which Mrs. Everett Barnett of Waverly presided and Mrs. J. D. Lowderback of Chicago, state director, spoke on "A World's vision of our Woman's Work." The report of the committee on Sunday school work was then given by Charles H. Story. W. B. Morris of Decatur closed the afternoon with the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. address, originally scheduled for Friday morning. Thursday evening the Rev. Edgar L. ### ELECTION IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 14.—The people of British Columbia are voting today as to whether the Bowser administration shall be continued in power or be replaced by a Government in control of the Liberals. The contest, which has been dragging along for more than a year, has been in the language of Premier Bowser himself, "the dirtiest campaign in the history of this province." Charges of fraud, corruption, and the mismanagement of public affairs have been hurled back and forth, while the energy displayed on both sides has been out of all proportion to the issues involved.

At the present time the Conservatives are in control of the Provincial legislature by a large majority. The recent by-elections, however, resulted in the return of Liberal members, which encouraged the opposition to put forth their best efforts to win a victory in the general election. The Socialists also have been working with might and main to increase their representation in the legislature, where they have already secured a substantial foothold.

CONGRATULATIONS

FOR GARRETSON

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Sept. 14.—Hundreds of members of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors throughout the country wire their greetings today to Austin B. Garretson, the president of the order, congratulating him on his birthday and on the success of his leadership in the recent movement to secure the eight hour day.

Today is Mr. Garretson's sixtieth birthday anniversary. He is a native and life-long resident of Iowa, and began his railroad career in this State. As far back as 1889 he held responsible positions in the order of railway conductors, but it was not until 1906 that he became president of the organization. Since that time he has been prominent in a national way, serving on the Federal commission of industrial relations, and also as a member of the executive committee of the National Civic Federations.

WISCONSIN POLICE CHIEFS

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 14.—Crooks of every description will probably fight shy of Milwaukee during the next few days, while the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association is holding its annual convention here. Heads of police departments of all the leading cities of that state were on hand at the beginning of the proceedings today. Chief John T. Janssen, of the Milwaukee department is the president of the association and the presiding officer of the convention.

COTTON MEN IN SESSION

New London, Conn., Sept. 14.—Members of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers assembled here today for their semi-annual meeting. Many important papers on the cotton industry have been prepared for the three days' sessions, and for the chief social event of the gathering a banquet has been arranged for tomorrow night at the Hotel Griswold.

FOUR SANGAMON COUNTY MEN ARE ASSEMBLY CANDIDATES

Voters Give Preference to Messrs. Frisch, Lyon, Merritt and Jones.

Jacob Frisch and T. E. Lyon both of Sangamon county were nominated for the general assembly of the forty-fifth senatorial district in Wednesday's primary. The vote was so close between Lyon and Pavey Wednesday evening that it was impossible to tell who had won.

Complete unofficial returns from both counties give Frisch, 9,522 votes in Sangamon county and 676 in Morgan county or a total of 10,198. Sangamon county gives Lyon 5,522 1-2 in Sangamon and 1,333 in Morgan, a total of 6,855 1-2. Sangamon county gives Pavey 5,965 1-2 Morgan 700, a total of 6,665 1-2. This makes Frisch and Lyon the candidates for the republicans.

The contest between the Democratic candidates was not as close as in the case of the Republican candidates. Edward L. Merritt one of the present incumbents ran strong in both counties and his renomination was never in doubt after a few precincts had been heard from. The race between Jones and Bell, however, was a close one and it required a full count to determine the result. At the last Jones forged ahead and was nominated by a vote of 5,691 to 4,686 for Bell. Merritt received a total of 8,553. John W. Sheehan received a small vote.

The Morgan county candidates M. L. Hildreth and Hugh Green made a splendid showing in Morgan county but fell down in Sangamon. Mr. Hildreth received 2,639 votes and Mr. Green 2,369 votes.

For the two days Draper's score was 293-300 and Barre's was 294-300. Wednesday Barre had a steady run of 73 without a miss and Thursday he broke 63 without missing.

The team shoot was won by Peoria, the score standing 119 out of a possible 125. Other clubs represented were Decatur, Lincoln, Springfield and Alexander.

J. W. Robertson stood highest among Alexander men Thursday with a score of 143 out of 150. The second highest amateur for the two days was Rambo. Mr. Robertson of Alexander was third highest for the two day events.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs-out the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication, and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon.

Relative Oil Destruction

The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Veedol the new lubricant that resists heat. Veedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.

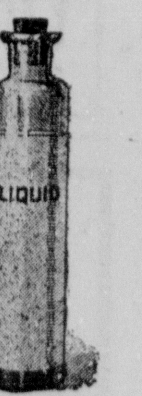

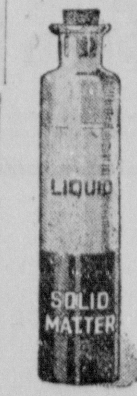

There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Veedol! Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure. Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Veedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

Make this test

Clean out the crank case. Fill with kerosene. Run the motor about thirty seconds under its own power; then draw out all kerosene and refill with Veedol.

Now make a test run over a familiar road—up steep hills and along straight, level stretches. Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileages.

You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Veedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses. Get a five-gallon can of Veedol, and make this convincing road test.

PRICES Have Not Advanced

The past advance in prices in all lines has operated in a retail way so as to cause us to look the market over more carefully than ever before.

The result is that fully one-half of our full lines show equal values with those offered a year ago.

We want to keep our prices down. We have succeeded remarkably well. A visit to our store and comparison of values will convince you.

We can still furnish a first class felt mattress in first class tick for less than $10.00.

We have genuine duo fold davenports at the same prices as a year ago.

Dressers at old prices and even better values.

In fact, most of the things you will want this fall can be bought here as reasonably as ever.

And we still give the 24 Green Stamps.

SUPT. PERRIN ANNOUNCES UNIVERSITY EXTENSION PROGRAM

Night School Will Be Established Soon if there is a Sufficient Demand.

The Board of Education has authorized the Superintendent of Schools to establish a night school if there is a sufficient demand for it. The school will probably be conducted in the High School building from 7 to 9 p. m., three or four nights per week.

Classes will be offered for young men and young women who are working and who desire to continue their education. No person under fourteen may be allowed to attend such classes and only those may attend who are working during the day and cannot avail themselves of the regular school.

Classes will be offered in such grade school subjects as there may be a demand for and special classes will be organized to carry on high school work if there is a demand.

The Board of Education will furnish the meeting place and the expense of running the school will be met by a small fee from each person attending. Such fee will be made as small as possible.

Regular teachers from the high school and departmental grammar school will be in charge of the classes. Appropriate credit certificates will be given for all work completed.

All persons who are interested in this course should report for enrollment on Tuesday evening, September 15th at 7 o'clock at the High School building. The school will probably begin about October 1st if one is formed. Full information will be given at the time of enrollment.

The Woman's College affords an unusual opportunity to the young women of Jacksonville for college education. Special certificate and degree courses in domestic science, music, art and expression.

HELP THE HUMANE SOCIETY.

The work of the humane society under the leadership of Miss Florence Ward is accomplishing good results yet more remains to be done. Whenever the young lady herself is about cases of abuse to animals are unknown but she can't be everywhere so any person seeing a case of abuse and willing to testify may report to Miss Ward or any officer of the humane society and the case will have immediate attention and if deemed of sufficient importance a warrant for the arrest of the sinner will be issued.

Laws are not self enforcing. Many times persons speak with great indignation regarding the treatment of animals they see so if they are willing to testify just report to Miss Ward and she will at once see to it that the matter has attention.

Yesterday afternoon Miss Ward did some excellent work. She was informed of a horse in a deplorable condition in a certain part of town and calling at the place she found an animal evidently very old, hardly any teeth, starving with a fearful scurf on its back. She took the precaution to have with her a veterinary surgeon who declared the horse was past redemption and the woman at the house was so informed but replied she didn't own the creature but on being interrogated told the name of the owner. To him Miss Ward went and secured a bill of sale and permit to put the horse out of its misery. The woman at the house made a big bluster declaring she would fight Miss Ward to a place which is reached by a road paved with good intentions but she had come across a lady who wasn't to be intimidated by bluff.

Veterinary surgeons have a method by which a horse is killed almost in a quarter of a second and painlessly and this was applied and Jacob Cohen's wagon was on hand to care for the carcass. Some dire threats were made by the woman at the house but that was all and the woman might be reminded that she is liable to trouble for making threats to do bodily injury so that it would be wise to keep quiet. She was told she could give up the horse or be arrested for cruelty to animals. Neither Miss Ward nor the society she represents has any desire to do anything harsh or unreasonable. A veterinary surgeon will always be consulted before an animal is put out of the way and cases of cruelty will be handled carefully and when genuine without gloves. Miss Ward will be very grateful for any information that will lead to the discovery of any cases of neglect or cruelty.

THE PARK BOARD

The park board met in regular session last evening and transacted ordinary business. Permission was given the chamber of commerce to use Central park for the home coming festivities in October. Two days for horse show including the first two rows of trees on the north side the chamber of commerce to inclose the space with ropes, cover the cement walks so as to protect them and clean up the park when the affair is over. Also permission was given to erect tents for various exhibitions and to sell concessions to suitable exhibitions and shows to help defray the expenses of the enterprise.

A committee was appointed to secure lumber for the bridge at Nichols park and to see that the weeds in the vicinity of the ditches dug emptying into the lagoons are cut and removed.

F. G. Courtney of Batesville was attending to business in the city yesterday.

SOME FARM TOPICS

Result of Oats Reports.

The following is the result of definite reports on the yields of different varieties of oats in Champaign county for 1916.

Variety	field Acres	Av. per A.
Big Four	146.9040	50.5 bu.
Silvermine	31.1878	48.6 bu.
Sixty Day	17.	855.51.9 bu.
Great American	15.	815.52.9 bu.
White Triumph	5.	253.51.3 bu.
Texas Red	3.	142.60.3 bu.
Mam. Cluster	3.	115.37.8 bu.
National	3.	196.51.0 bu.
Kansas Black	4.	179.49.7 bu.

A number of other varieties were reported but for the most part only one field of each, so the yields are not given. As in the two previous years in which these reports have been obtained from farmers, the Big Four leads in acreage and is among the best yielders. Several other varieties yield about the same but on account of the fact that so few are reported in comparison with the Big Four, it appears that for the average farmer this variety is hard to beat. It might be of interest to note the yield of the "Mammoth Cluster" which is the variety the seed of which cost some of our farmers $2.50 per bushel a few years ago.

The total number of fields reported was 250; the total acreage was 14,426. Of these 48 fields (2858 acres) were not treated for smut and averaged 48.1 bushels per acre while 202 fields (11,568 acres) were treated and averaged 50.9 bushels per acre, an increase of 2.8 bushels per acre for treated oats. This in spite of the fact that smut was not so bad in untreated fields this year as last. The fact is that all farmers who had it had last year treated their seed this year. As a consequence, smut was not so bad even in untreated fields. But even so a difference of 2.8 bushels per acre at the present high price is no small item.

The average of all the oats reported was 50.4 bushels per acre and as these reports came from all parts of the county it is probable that this is pretty close to the general average for the county. I believe also that the percentage of oats reported as treated is pretty close to the percentage for the county. The figures show that 80.2 percent of the oats reported were treated for smut. As we grow approximately 160,000 acres per year, this would put the number of acres treated at 128,000. —C. H. Oathout, Co. Agricultural Agent.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR

S. CLAY AVE. PAVEMENT
The board of local improvement met Thursday to receive bids for the paving of South Clay avenue with tarvia. The only bid filed was that of the Interstate Paving Co. for $7,723.30. This figure is about $100 less than the engineer's estimate. The bid must lay over under the rules in accordance with the law and the contract will undoubtedly be awarded to this company, represented here by Walter Loneragan. After the bid is awarded the contract must remain open for ten days to permit property owners to put in the improvement themselves if they so desire, and after that time the work can proceed. It is the expectation to have this paving between Morton avenue and Superior avenue laid before cold weather comes.

PATIENT IS WANDERING
Julius Niemann of Arenzville, who has been a patient at Jacksonville State hospital, recently escaped and the young man's father has sent notices broadcast in the hope of learning something of the wanderer's whereabouts. When Niemann left the hospital he was thinly clad and must have been without funds, and his relatives are very anxious as to his whereabouts and condition.

QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON.

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.

16. Why is it the duty of every Christian to be baptized?

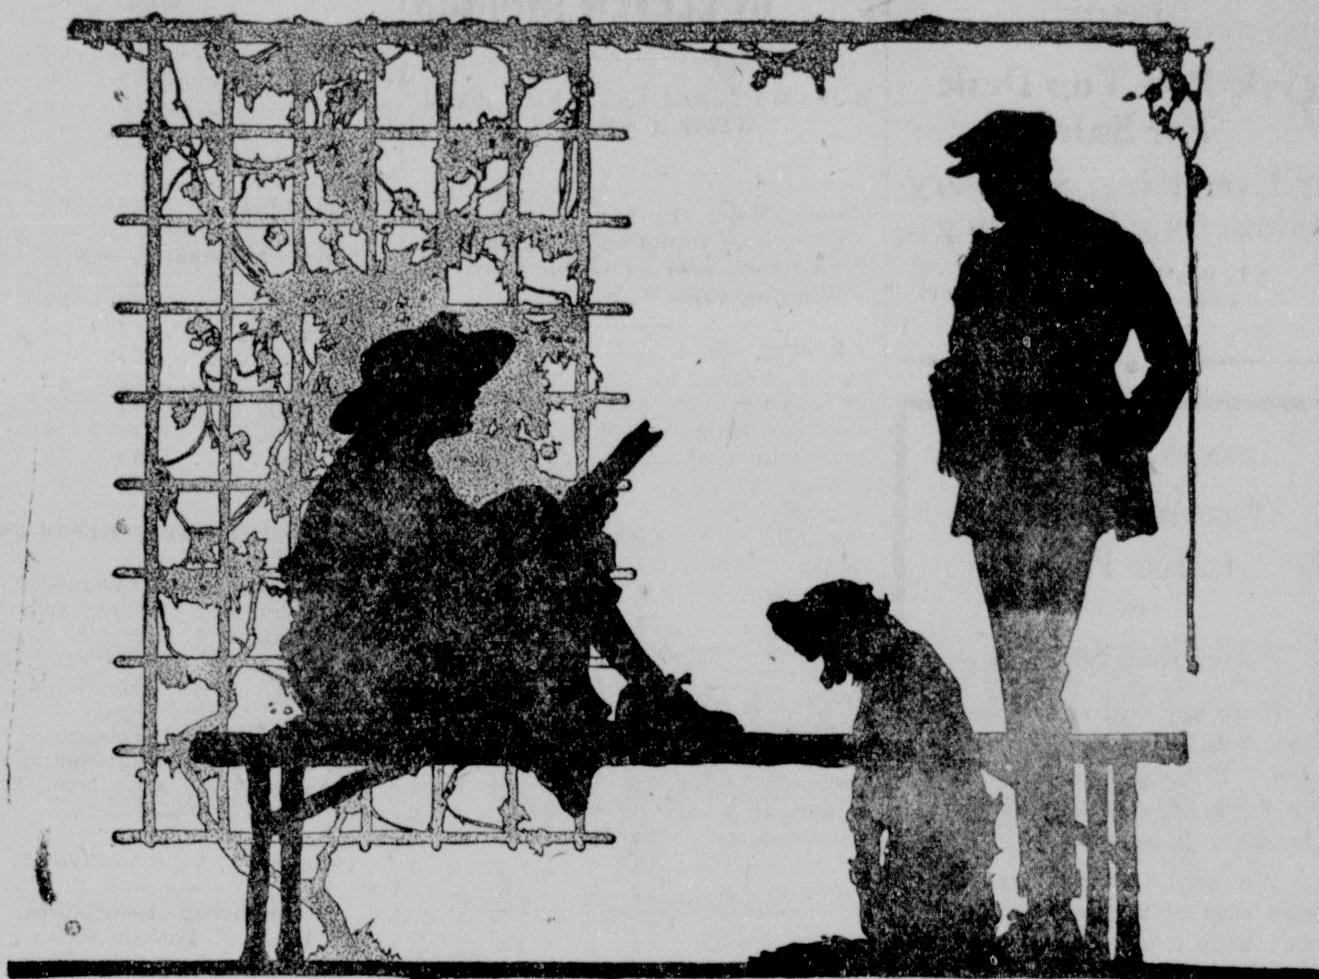

17. Verses 17-21. What do you know either directly or indirectly about the Christian experience called here "a trance?"

18. Verses 22, 23. Upon what psychological, or spiritual, or moral grounds can you explain this violent outburst against Paul after such a fair and straightforward talk? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by the members of the club.)

19. Verses 24-29. In those days they scourged, or tortured, a prisoner so as to drag from him information about himself; what resemblance is there between that and the so-called modern third degree "police method?"

20. To what extent can you trace God's hand in preventing Paul's torture?

21. What kind of suffering is essential in these days if we would be true to God in witnessing for him? Lesson for Sunday, Sept. 24, 1916. Review: The Things Which Are Not Seen.

Save a Sifting

THE test of a cake is lightness, and with ordinary flour your only hope is in frequent siftings. This is what makes Roxane Flour invaluable—your cake will be light, perfect in grain, with lots of extra sifting saved. Once or twice is sufficient.

The reason is in the grain itself—so, extra fine, grown especially for fastidious cake-makers. Roxane is light because of our special process. Extra care, extra work on our part, means less trouble for you.

Attrite more than ordinary flour, but isn't success with that big cake worth an extra penny or two?

We put it up to Hundreds of Dentists

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists; requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glisten and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO—25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

A copy of the folder, "The Most General Disease in the World" together with a liberal trial size tube of SENRECO will be mailed you for 4c in stamps. The Sentinel Remedies Co., Inc., Dept. B, Masonic Temple, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WILL PAT MORAN'S PHILLIES REPEAT?

A recent poll of the major league managers showed a majority picking the Phillies to again romp home a winner in the National League pennant scramble.

Manager Pat Moran is given great credit for putting the Phils on the baseball map. Of the eleven managers who tried their hands at guiding the team since 1883, Pat is the only pilot who brought home a pennant.
The Philadelphia "Athletics," as the team was the unknown, joined the National league in 1876, the first year of the organization. They dropped out of the circuit at the close of the first season. In 1883 the Phillies rejoined the National league and have been members of the league ever since.

In the past 33 years of pastimeing the Phils have finished in the first division 23 times and 10 times in the second division. Only twice have they finished a season in last place.
Alexander the Great, the Phils' star pitcher, is nearly the 30 mark in games won for the season. This excellent heaver stand a good chance to better his last year's record of 31 games won and 19 games lost.

Outfielder George Whitted, who was traded by the Braves to the Phillies last year, has developed into a star pastimeer. He is hitting in the .300 set and stands well up among the leading National league base-stealers.

Pat Moran's champs have been traveling in the second division in team batting, but are well up towards the top in team fielding.

Eppa Rixey shares with Alexander the credit due to giving the Phils airtight pitching. The tall Virginia twirler is having the banner season of his career.

Stock is the leading hitter. Pasker the leading run-getter and Whitted the leading base-stealer performing with the Quakers.

The Phillies have seldom failed to have one or more celebrated players on their roster. Many old stars pastimeing with the team, among them the late Ed Deleahanty, who as a slugger was second to none, and Billy Hamilton, the greatest base-runner the National league ever owned.

Whitted and Duguey, two young members of the Quakers, have already taken part in two world's series and are hopeful of adding a third to their list. Both were members of the Braves in 1914 and of the Phils last season.

Pat Moran, the Phils' pilot, was born at Fitchburg, Mass., Feb. 7, 1876, and began his baseball career as a catcher for the Lyons New York State league club in 1897. He joined the Boston Nationals in 1901 and during the next ten years he back-stopped for Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia. An injured arm put him out of harness in 1911 and he was then appointed coach for the Philis. Four years later he became manager of the team.

BEDS IN COLONIAL DAYS.

The Settee, a Link Between Settle and Sofa, Was Sometimes Used.

Toward the close of the seventeenth century the bed increased in importance. A list of the household furnishings of a Salem merchant in 1690 included "1 great oaken bed, 1 truckle bed, 6 maple, 1 large sack bottom bed, 6 Camblett bed curtains, 2 calicoe bed curtains, 8 blanket sheets, 1 pair silk bed curtains."

The settee, which was a link between the settle and the sofa, was sometimes used as a bed. This piece of furniture was both of imported and domestic make. The back and seat were usually incased in turnkey work. With the exception of the arms and braces the entire frame was concealed.

The construction of the colonial settee was identical with one type of the renaissance seat. From Italy it passed into France and from France to England. Holland had no part in its development.

From the Italian palace of the sixteenth century to the New England home of the seventeenth was a far-away cry, and yet, barring crude workmanship, the colonial bench was a faithful copy of the renaissance design. The Dutch settlers were unfamiliar with this settee, as they also were with the New England settle.—Argonaut.

THE OLD HURDY GURDY.

Crude Musical Instrument That Led Up to the Hand Organ.

The early type of hurdy gurdy originated in Germany during the ninth century and under the name of bauren leyer (peasant's lyre) attained great popularity throughout Europe, falling into a decline only at the beginning of the last century. Even today a slightly modernized type of this instrument may be seen upon the streets of the smaller towns of Savoy.

The instrument consisted of a violin-like frame and sounding board, provided with from three to six strings. The music was produced by a small crank actuated wooden wheel, whose resined edge bore against the strings. The two outer strings were keyed in unison and when the wheel was revolved gave forth a bass note which served as a musical background. The remaining strings were attached to keys, by which their tension and their tone might be varied. This adjustment was the only control possessed by the player.

Needless to say, the hurdy gurdy was suited only to the most elementary of selections. While originally much used at fetes and celebrations, it later was used only by itinerant street musicians, a position now occupied by its successor—the hand organ.—Pittsburgh Times.

Earliest Cold Storage.

In Macaulay's essay on "Lord Bacon" he points out that in 1626 the subject of his memoir tried the experiment of stuffing a fowl with snow to prevent it from putrefying and in carrying out the work caught cold, from which he died. Macaulay adds: "In the last letter that he ever wrote, with fingers which, as he said, could not steadily hold a pen, he did not omit to mention that the experiment of the snow had succeeded excellently well." If, however, we turn to nature there are instances in Siberia of mammoths preserved in ice so that their flesh is still eatable from a period probably coeval with the first appearance of man on this globe. If the Romans brought to their banquets the dainties of the known world, had they not some knowledge of cold storage?—London Spectator.

Fat Men Popular in Japan.

In this country when a man of average height takes on girth until his weight runs up to 300 pounds or so his friends have grave doubts about his condition and advise him to diet in order to bring back a slim elegance of figure. In Japan the contrary is true. If a man can carry 300 pounds of flesh with any agility he is of the material from which heroes are manufactured, and if he can work up to the 400 or 475 pound notch and become a wrestler he is in the running for the championship. Wrestling is to the Japanese what boxing is to us and more. The populace goes crazy over it, and the magnates of the big game handle great sums in the way of gate receipts.—Wide World Magazine.

Willing to Be an Ex-Convict.

An attorney and a judge were discussing the apparent lack of ambition on the part of some of the young men of today.

"Why, I know a man," declared the justice, "whose greatest ambition in life is to be an ex-convict."

"You do?" said the lawyer in surprise.

"Yes. He's a life termer in the penitentiary."—San Francisco Chronicle.

MAXWELL CARS AID TO BILLY SUNDAY

Baseball Evangelist Says Automobiles Make Bigger Campaigns Possible.

Billy Sunday, the baseball evangelist realizes the value of the automobile in conducting his great religious revivals throughout the country. During his recent campaign in Kansas City, Mr. Sunday and his aides used a fleet of Maxwell cars in getting about the city. Billy used a Maxwell Sedan constantly during his stay in the Missouri city.

The evangelist was immensely pleased with the service rendered by his car. In fact, he was so pleased, that he wrote an appreciation to the company. His letter follows:

"I wish it were possible to have every one generally understand how much you have contributed to the success of the campaign here in Kansas City. It would not have been possible for me to speak as many times and as many places but for the excellent automobile service you furnished.

"The cars have been dependable, reliable and comfortable. They have always been in order, clean, attractive, and we have had no trouble or delay at any time. I thank you most heartily.

"I had no idea that a light, inexpensive car could arouse so much admiration as the Maxwell has done. With best wishes for your continued success and with kind regards,

Sincerely yours,
W. A. SUNDAY."

James Ardinger of Litchfield made a business trip to the city yesterday.

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How
Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:—

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice.—It will be confidential.

"Only 'Gets-It' for Me After This!"

It "Gets" Every Corn Every Time.
Painless. Nothing More Simple.
"I'll tell you what, I've quit using toe-eating salves for corns. I've quit making a package out of my toes with bandages and contraptions—quit digging with knives and scissors. Give me 'GETS-IT' every time!"

When You See These Pretty Girls in Your Druggist's Window It's a Good Time To End Your Corns.

That's what they all say the very first time they use "GETS-IT." It's because "GETS-IT" is so simple and easy to use—put it on in a few seconds—because there is no work or corn-fooling to do, no pain that shoots up to your heart. It gets your corns off your mind. All the time it's working—and then, that little old corn peels right off, leaving the clean, corn-free skin underneath—and your corn is gone! No wonder millions prefer "GETS-IT." Try it tonight. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by R. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Armstrong's Drug Store and J. A. Obermeyer.

Invasions of Russia.

The first great invasion of Russia was that of the Huns, a race of fierce and warlike Asiatics, who swept over eastern Europe in the fourth century.

In the thirteenth century the golden horde of Tartars captured Russia, and from 1238 to 1462 the country was under the yoke of the Mongols. In 1395 Tamerlane invaded Russia, but retired. In 1462 the Slavs again gained the ascendancy, and Ivan III. (the Great) founded the present monarchy and introduced firearms and cannon into Russia.

In 1470 there was another great invasion of Tartars, but they were driven out. In 1613 the present royal family, the Romanoffs, gained the throne. In 1700 the Swedes invaded Russia, but after several victories they were routed.

The last great invasion of Russia was that of Napoleon. His disastrous retreat from Russia, in which most of his army was destroyed, marked the beginning of the end of his power.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

An Invisible Clock.

A public clock which can be heard, but not seen, is one of London's curious possessions. It is in the tower of St. Mary Abbot's church, Kensington, and is the only public clock in the immediate neighborhood. It chimes the quarters and the hours, but commits itself no further. It has no dial, no hands, no outward and visible sign of any kind to show that it is a clock. This eccentricity, it is explained, is the result of two causes—one aesthetic, the other financial. When the tower was built in 1879 a clock was suggested as an afterthought, but the architect protested that it would mean the addition of fifteen feet to the tower and the ruin of its cherished proportions. A second point was that the church, having but slender funds, could not afford a clock with a dial. A compromise was arrived at by installing the works of a chiming clock in the belfry without dial or hands.—Pearson's.

Profitable Pebbles.

The flint pebble industry gives occupation to many women and children along the French coast lying between Havre and Dieppe. The pebbles collected in and near Havre are selected for their spherical shape and are used exclusively for pulverizing in certain industries, particularly in the manufacture of cement and in copper mines, being employed in the interior of large cylinders. In the cement industry the slow turning of the pebbles produces a powder which becomes an ingredient of the cement, while in the copper industry the metal is freed of all impurities by the grinding operation. The same kind of pebbles is used for crushing purposes in the manufacture of paint. Another important use of flint pebbles is in the manufacture of porcelain, the pebbles for this purpose being found between Fecamp and Calais.—Philadelphia Press.

A "Friday" Ship.

A true story is told of a skeptical Massachusetts captain who way back in the early years of the republic determined to exhibit the fallacy of the Friday superstition. He contracted on a certain Friday for the building of a ship, and it was arranged that the keel of this vessel was laid on Friday, that she was launched on a Friday, named Friday, commenced loading on a Friday and hauled into the stream on the same day of the week. To add to the possibilities of disaster, a negro cook named Friday was engaged, and, thus fully freighted with the sinister name, the Friday sailed on a Friday, bound to a port in the West Indies. From that day to this no tidings of the ill fated craft have been received.

Salt In the Spectrum.

The extreme delicacy of the spectrum test is illustrated by the fact stated by Lommel that the three-millionth part of a milligram of a salt of sodium, an imperceptible particle of dust to the naked eye, is yet capable of coloring the flame of a candle yellow and of giving the yellow lines of sodium in the spectroscopic. Indeed, sodium in the form of a common salt (sodium chloride) is so universally present as an impalpable dust floating in the air that it is next to impossible to get a spectrum which does not show the sodium lines.

Knew the Brand.

"Is that a Landseer, Mr. Croesus?" asked the visitor, pausing before the painting.

"No," replied the host; "reckon it is a Durham. See how broad it is between the horns, and see the color and curl on its forehead. That's a genuine Durham sure."—Exchange.

Balky Machine.

"Do you want me to watch your automobile?" asked the boy.

"Yes," replied Mr. Chuggins. "And if it tries to start up and run away don't stop it. Holler for me, and I'll take a chance on overtaking it and getting the first ride I've had for three or four hours."—Washington Star.

Wisdom.

Wisdom may be compared to water. As water leaves the heights and gathers in the depths, so is wisdom received from on high and preserved by a lowly soul.—Talmud.

Kindness of Nature.

"Ain't nature wonderful?" "Why?"

"She gives us all faces, but we can pick our own teeth."—Harvard Lampoon.

Stupidity has no friends and wants none.—Horace Greeley.

WHEAT MARKET WEAKENS AFTER EARLY DISPLAY OF STRENGTH

Prices Close Weak at 1 to 2 Cents Net Lower—Corn Falls When Wheat Turns Weak.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Sudden weakness seized the wheat market late today after an early display of strength. The downturn, which in some cases amounted to seven cents a bushel as compared with top prices of the day was accompanied by assertions that Argentine wheat was being offered cheaper in the United States than domestic wheat and by unconfirmed rumors that Sweden had decided to go to war, presumably against Great Britain. Something of a recovery ensued, but prices closed weak 1½c to 2½c net lower with December at $1.48½ to $1.49½ and May at $1.49 to $1.49½.

Corn 4 to 5c and oats 3 to 3½c down. In provisions the outcome ranged from five cents decline to a rise of 3c.

Extreme breaks of five to 10 cents seven cents a bushel to the top prices of the day in wheat were brief but nevertheless lasted long enough to enforce the sacrifice of many ill protected holdings.

The causes of the flurry were known to but few at the time and would have made little if any difference as most of the sales were of an automatic stop loss character. Previous to the late setback in wheat prices the market had been tending upward the greater part of the day influenced by announcements that the Greek government had purchased in the United States 1,000,000 bushels of wheat and 60,000 barrels of flour.

Corn fell when wheat turned weak. Before that time the market had scored a decided advance owing to predictions of a widespread frost tonight that might result in serious damage to a large fraction of the crop.

Cats swayed with corn and wheat. Liberal export buying proved insufficient as an offset to increased offerings in the last hour.

THE STARS AND STRIPES.

First Carried by Troops in Battle in the Mexican War.

The American flag collections of the United States National museum in Washington include some interesting examples of our flag, indicative of its development in several historical periods, its many changes and its gradual standardization.

It is interesting to note that during the Revolution the flag had thirteen stars; in the war of 1812, fifteen; in the Mexican war, twenty-nine; in the civil war, thirty-five; in the Spanish-American war, forty-five, and today, forty-eight. The American flag is among the oldest of national flags, being older than the present British union jack, the French tricolor and the flag of Spain and many years older than the flags of Germany and Italy, some of which, like those of other countries, are personal flags, or those of reigning families.

The history of our flag indicates that the "stars and stripes" was not carried by troops in battle until the period of the Mexican war, 1846-7, though we have record of its use as a garrison flag from about 1787 or 1798 to 1834. Bodies of troops carried during this period and before it what was known as national colors or standards of blue with the arms of the United States emblazoned thereon, comprising an eagle surmounted by a number of stars, and with the designation of the body of troops, as infantry, artillery, etc., inscribed on a scroll.

In 1824 the artillery were given the right of carrying the stars and stripes as recorded by the war department regulations, the infantry and cavalry still using the national arms with an added scroll in the eagle's beak bearing the words "E Pluribus Unum." These flags remained the colors of the infantry until 1841 and the cavalry until as late as 1887, when they were ordered to employ the stars and stripes.

FANATICS IN THE ORIENT.

In Persia Religious Maniacs Are Regarded as Saints.

It appears there are places where lunatics are not "shut up and kept away from the rest of the world, but are revered as saints.

This is the queer state of affairs that exists in some of the interior cities of Persia, according to an oriental traveler named Fetter, who tells interesting tales of mentally deranged men who are looked upon in the light of wonderful beings.

One particularly crazy man, according to Mr. Fetter the craziest man he ever saw or heard of, does nothing all day long but race up and down the streets of the city crying out at the top of his voice:

"All! All! All!"

Mr. Fetter says that this is not a temporary form of madness, for the man has kept it up for twenty years or so. He started it when he was still a young man, and his idea, of course, is to venerate the name of the god he knows by ceaselessly shrieking his name.

"Every one venerates this lunatic," says Mr. Fetter. "The richest men in the city have presented him with rare gifts. One of them gave him a horse and saddle, and with that he gallops through the streets when he is not walking. He is privileged to break up any kind of meeting or assembly, and all stop and listen to his cries as long as he is of the notion to stay in their midst.

"At his death a huge monument has already been promised, on which will be carved the word 'All,' so it will tell to generations to come the story of the man who spent the best years of his life and all of his waking hours shrieking the name of the deity he worshipped."—Exchange.

How "Abide With Me" Was Written.

At the age of fifty-four Lyte found himself doomed to die of consumption, and in sorrow at having to leave his task unfinished he prayed that at the least it might be granted to him to write something which would live to the glory of God when he was dead. Then on the last evening he ever spent at Brixham, after preaching his farewell sermon, he took his pen and as the sun was setting over the ships that lay in the harbor, "Abide With Me" was written. Next morning he started for the Riviera and there died a month later.—London Telegraph.

It Was All Over.

Molly, the new girl, was one of those heavy handed creatures who was for ever dropping or breaking things. Hearing a crash of glassware one morning, her mistress called in a resigned voice from the next room:

"Well, Mollie, what are you doing now?"

"I ain't doin' nothin', mum. It's done," replied the treasure.

Domestic Finesse.

"These are unusually fine cigars, Mrs. Jiggers. Your husband is lucky to have you select them for him."

"Oh, he doesn't smoke that kind regularly. I use them to slip in his pocket whenever I give him a letter to post."—Baltimore American.

Knows Those Sizes.

"I notice the ladies all tell the shoe clerk exactly what sizes they wear."

"Say on, Macdull."

"And I also notice that he measures their feet just the same."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Uninvited.

"The landlord called for the rent this morning."

"Did you ask him to call again?"

"It wasn't necessary. He threatened to."—New York World.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Mrs. Anthony Caminetti, wife of the United States Commissioner of Immigration, had the distinction of being the sole woman member of the committee on notifications designated by the Democratic convention at St. Louis to inform President Wilson of his renomination. There were numerous other women in the official party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson at Shadow Lawn on notification day, but Mrs. Caminetti was the only one with official status. Mrs. Caminetti is one of the leading suffragists of California, which was one of the few states to send women delegates to the Democratic National convention, and it was the first time in the history of the Democratic party that women voters were extended such recognition of their political importance.

At the University of Oregon, at Eugene, Betty Schafer, 13 years old, and Jane Campbell, 14, have translated a 200-word composition into Latin after only seven days' instruction. The "stunt" was accomplished under the direction of Dr. Adolph A. Berle, a Cambridge, Mass., educator, who has been employing the services of the two girls to show the pedagogical classes at the university the time that can be saved in teaching. "The secret lies in teaching the pupils to associate," says Dr. Berle. "I started Jane and Betty by having them learn the vocabularies thru looking up every English derivative. When we came to the word 'magnus,' they went to the dictionary and found 'magnanimous,' 'magnify,' 'magnificent,' and so on. Those girls will never forget that 'magnus' means 'great.'"

Mrs. Anna Spellman of Chicago, an athletic and handsome widow, has signified her intention of becoming a policewoman, after having rescued a man from a crowd of roughs, set him on his feet and on his way, and then turned to his molesters and dared them to "come on." Her own prowess, daring as it was, is not the only thing, however, which has inspired Mrs. Spellman to become a "copette." The chief cause was her fruitless appeal to two policemen to help the man before she went to his rescue herself. One policeman was riding on the same car with her when she sighted the brawl, and gave as his reason for not meddling that he had done his day's work and was going home. Another whom she found at the corner upon leaving the car said the quarrel was about politics and he wouldn't interfere. Now Mrs. Spellman has made up her mind that a great many men on the Chicago police force "are just time servers," with a courage and strength inferior to her own, and she is going to take the next examination for the force.

Miss Nora Blatch de Forest holds the unique position for a woman of consulting engineer with the New York civil service commission, and has been responsible for the planning of many notable buildings and bridges in the metropolis. She gained her knowledge of engineering at Cornell University and is one of the leading pioneers in the field, which has not yet been sought as largely by women as other professional occupations.

GREAT HORSE SHOW IN CENTRAL PARK PLANNED

Will be Star Feature of Fall Festival in October—Board Has Granted Privileges to Business Men.

At the meeting of the park board Thursday permission was given the chamber of commerce to use Central park for the fall festival, including the authority to have a horse show on the north side of the park. This announcement makes certain that the festival will be the biggest thing of the kind given here for years. Secretary Rodgers of the chamber of commerce and the committee from the directors have been going over the plans for a number of weeks and it was decided that a horse show would be a feature certain to add very materially to the success of the whole affair. To secure a suitable place was essential and it was proposed that the north side of the park be used for this purpose. There is practically no grass there and by covering the concrete walks and the surface of the ground with sand, horses and other livestock can be taken into the park without any resulting damage. At Chapin two weeks ago and at other villages in the county in recent years the livestock shows have attracted more interest than any other feature at picnic and homecoming events.

Many Fine Horses in County.

While the automobile has come into such popularity in farming communities, the horse has by no means been relegated to an unimportant place. There are hundreds of fine horses in Morgan county, especially among draft animals. Generous prizes will be offered and the business men who are enthusiastic about the festival are certain that citizens all over the county will show their interest with entries. It is possible that the exhibits will not be limited to horses and mules, and cattle and sheep may also be exhibited. While considerable stress will be laid upon the livestock exhibit because of its novelty in connection with the Central park display, livestock will by no means be all the festival plans will include. A great tent is to be erected where space will be reserved for farm exhibits and various attractions. The poultry association will have its exhibit in the park.

Auto Show Promised.

An automobile show will be another attractive feature, and according to plans already developed, the difficulties the committee will have will be in securing enough space in the park and surrounding territory. The whole project is one which will interest business men and citizens generally because it will attract visitors from the outlying districts and all the features will be staged on the public square, in the place most accessible for all the people. Certainly this fall festival project will be one upon which all merchants will unite, for by united effort it can be made a huge success and of great interest and benefit to all.

HIGH LIVESTOCK PRICES WILL CONTINUE IS INDICATION

Shortage of Fat Cattle Insures Strong Market—Hog Prices Slightly Lower.

Alexander, Ward and Conover in a review of the Chicago livestock market for three days of this week express the belief that present high prices are to continue. The market summary follows:

Monday opened up with 26,320 cattle, 5,000 of which were range cattle, and a very liberal supply of good heavy cattle. Market unevenly lower, 25 to 40c lower than last week's closing prices, and the decline was on about all kinds, except prime yearlings and prime handy weights; they showed the least decline. Today Wednesday receipts are estimated at 14,000, bulk of the good cattle sold 10 to 15c higher, and good heavy cattle that were so badly neglected Monday 15 to 25c higher. It was very unfortunate that we had such a heavy run here Monday, especially of good cattle, as buyers will take advantage of it and hammer the prices down. Today receipts light of heavy cattle and they all seemed to want them at a sharp advance over Monday. We still think there is a great shortage of well fatted good weight cattle to market during the next 60 days and believe they will continue to sell at high prices.

Butcher market—Strictly choice cows and heifers steady, medium to good cows and heifers 40 to 60c lower, common cows 25 to 40c lower. Canners steady with close last week. Bull market lowest of season 25 to 35c lower. Calves steady, top on vealers $13.00. Increased receipts at all the markets and a liberal run of range stuff has been the bearish feature this week.

Hogs—Hog receipts continue moderate. Best selling 25c lower than high day of the year. Mixed and packing hogs 50 to 75c lower. The spread between the best and fair hogs fully $1.00 per cwt. Pigs are selling mostly $9.00 to $9.50. We do not expect heavy receipts soon but advise marketing matured hogs.

Sheep and Lambs—Sheep and lambs sold about steady. Good to fat lambs, $10.75 to $11.35; ewes, $7.00 to $7.75; wethers, $7.75 to $8.50; yearling wethers, $8.00 to $9.25; feeding lambs, $10.00 to $10.60; wethers, $6.50 to $7.00; ewes, $5.50 to $6.00; yearling wethers $7.50 to $8.50; breeding ewes young, $8.50 to $10.50; old, $7.25 to $8.50.

DUKAY EXCURSION WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Knights of Khorassan and Friends in Large Numbers Took the River Trip.

The river and rail excursion given by Ilderim Temple D. O. K. K. of this city by rail to Pearl, thence by boat to Mercedosa Thursday was a big success in every particular.

One hundred and fifty left here on the special Chicago and Alton and there were about fifty people already on the boat. The Wauash sold 113 tickets to Mercedosa Thursday and most of them made the return trip by boat and the special train.

The trip to Mercedosa was a pleasant one, the owing to the low stage of water the boat did not arrive in Mercedosa until 6:40 o'clock. There was a large crowd to meet the excursionists when the boat landed. The members of the Dukay drill team were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hall at dinner, Mr. Hall being a member of the temple and while residing here one of the most active workers.

Following the dinner the trip was escorted from the Hall home to the business section of the city by the Mercedosa band where the drill was given in Main street. The drill was witnessed by a large crowd and was received with great enthusiasm. After the drill, G. A. Hedrick, a restaurant man in Mercedosa gave the members a box of El Maccos cigars. The boat left on the return trip at 8:15 and arrived home about midnight.

William N. Hairgrove made an address at the home coming Thursday afternoon. The address Thursday evening was given by John J. Reeve.

AN IMPORTANT FINANCIAL TRANSACTION.

Many Thousand Dollars Saved to Shurtliff College—A. A. Curry an Active on the Committee.

At the Baptist association yesterday the superintendent of education told a story well worth repeating. The trustees of Shurtliff college had loaned some money in St. Louis and it became necessary to take a lot of vacant property. Then came along conditions which made it seem wise to buy some more adjoining what was already owned. Taxes and assessment kept piling up till it represented an investment of something like $70,000. Then the trustees had what they thought was an opportunity to sell for $22,000 and they accepted it but the purchaser backed out and the treasurer said they might as well take $16,000 for the land and get rid of it but that seemed too much of a sacrifice.

Finally the matter was placed in the hands of a special committee of which A. A. Curry was the principal member and they set about devising means whereby the property might be so managed as to realize something on it.

After thinking over the matter with great care and studying conditions they decided to spend a lot more money plating the land and making improvements till the trustees were cashless as the cost had run up to $91,000. Then the tables began to turn; the lots were in demand and today they have paid the $91,000, and have received a profit of $12,000 and have a number of valuable lots yet for sale. The speaker paid a fine compliment to Mr. Curry and the others of the committee and certainly they deserved it.

Wheeler and Sorrells were notified and brought the frame in Thursday afternoon. It is not known what caused the fire but it is Mr. Hairgrove's opinion that it was caused by the engine backfiring.

CAPITAL CITY READY FOR 1916 STATE FAIR

All Arrangements are Complete—Exhibits Will Rival Former Years.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 14.—With all arrangements completed Springfield is in readiness for the opening day of the state fair tomorrow. Flags and banners are everywhere in evidence and thousands of colored lights will add to the splendor at night. Visitors have already begun to arrive and every incoming train adds its quota to the throng.

The livestock exhibits have been coming in constantly for the past week and have occupied their respective positions at the cattle barns at the fair grounds. The cattle exhibit was omitted last year because of the foot and mouth disease. Great interest is being taken in both the horse and auto races which will take place the latter part of the week. Some of the world's most famous drivers will participate in these races, and many famous horses will compete for honors, the purses totaling many thousands of dollars. Nothing has been omitted which will add to the entertainment of visitors, and the fair this year promises to be one of unusual interest.

SENATOR HULL TAKES DEFEAT IN GRACEFUL STYLE.

Pledges Support to Col. Lowden Whom He Believes Will Certainly be the Next Governor of Illinois.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 14.—(Special)—A sportsmanlike statement was issued by Senator Morton D. Hull early last evening as soon as the returns from Cook county and the down-state precincts clearly indicated the nomination of Col. Lowden. Senator Hull said:

"Returns indicate the nomination of Col. Lowden. If such proves to be the case I shall accept the result with good grace. Under the direct primary there is popular plurality rule. I bow to the judgment of the party voters that Col. Lowden is to be preferred as the party standard-bearer and extend to him congratulations. He will, of course, have my support as against the Democratic nominee. I believe the nomination for Governor this year is equivalent to an election and I wish it to be understood that as a member of the State Senate I shall do all in my power to assist in making Col. Lowden's administration a success.

"I wish to thank the many thousands who approved the fight we have made with their support at the primaries and to assure them that I shall try to justify their confidence in me as a progressive Republican during my continued service in the Senate."

Senator Hull, also, last evening, at 8:45, sent a telegram of congratulations to Col. Lowden, at Oregon, which read as follows:

"Returns indicate your nomination. Accept my congratulations. I believe your nomination is practically equivalent to a reelection. I bow to the judgment of the voters of our party and shall of course support you as against your Democratic opponent. Be assured also I shall, as a member of the Senate, try to assist you in making your administration a success."

QUINCY JOURNAL WILL BE MANAGED BY TRUSTEES

According to the terms of the will of the late Hiram N. Wheeler, proprietor of the Quincy Journal who died recently in this city the paper will be managed by four trustees for a period of twenty years. The trustees named are Rudolph Tenk, Duke Schorer, John A. Connery and Harvey Fry. Mr. Tenk had been an intimate friend of Mr. Wheeler for many years. Mr. Schorer and Mr. Connery were formerly associated with the paper and Mr. Fry is the present business manager. It was thought that Mr. Wheeler's sons, who are both newspaper men would take charge of the paper.

Mr. Wheeler stipulates that the trustees are to manage the paper for twenty years according to their best judgment. They may consult with the heirs but are not required to abide by their decision. The paper is to be operated for the benefit of the daughters, Miss Gladys Wheeler and Miss Bernice Wheeler, the latter a student at Illinois college.

The will provides that if either of them should die without children their share is to go to the sons of James D. and John R. Wheeler. At the end of the twenty year period the paper is to be sold at public or private sale and the proceeds divided equally between the daughters. The sons are bequeathed $250 each. The testator says this bequest is not made because of any lack of affection but because the sons are now past middle age and are competent to care for themselves.

The Woman's College opens next week, Monday and Tuesday are registration days. First Chapel service nine o'clock Wednesday.
